

Central Walbran Valley Recreation Areas (Unceded Nuu-chah-nulth Territories)

Teal Jones Proposed Cutblocks & Logging Road May 27, 2015

Teal Jones Proposed Cutblocks May 27, 2015

Teal Jones Cutblock #4424 Approved Sep 18, 2015

*Base Camp includes a wall tent for warming up, covered kitchen area, dish-washing station & fire pit.

Also note: the original name for the Walbran Valley is Kaxi:cs, which means "Big River".

- | Places of Interest |  |
|--------------------|--|
|                    | Elder Trees  |
|                    | Base Camp*   |
|                    | Tent Spots   |
|                    | Rustic Bathrooms   |
|                    | Information / Notice Board   |
|                    | Emerald Pool   |
|                    | Waterfalls   |
|                    | Creek Crossing (Fording)   |
|                    | Road Bridge  |
|                    | Cable Car Crossing (in development)  |
|                    | Medicine Wheel   |
|                    | Teal Jones Proposed Roads - from May 27, 2015 Map                              |
|                    | Unpaved Logging Roads  |
|                    | Boardwalk  |
|                    | Trails   |
|                    | Proposed Trail   |
|                    | Flagged Routes   |
|                    | 20m elevation contours   |
|                    | 100m elevation contours  |
|                    | Teal Jones Proposed Cutblocks - from May 27, 2015 Map                          |
|                    | Teal Jones Cutblock #4424 Approved Sep 18, 2015; (Applied for: June 23, 2015)  |
|                    | Central Walbran Ancient Forest Proposed for Protection by Wilderness Committee |
|                    | Carmanah-Walbran Provincial Park Boundary                                      |

Mapping by: Wilderness Committee, Nov 2016; based on BC Government Geographic Data and Teal Jones Map dated May 27, 2015